Bonnie Tandy Leblang just launched her new Web site www.BiteoftheBest.com. It features products that a seasoned food writer (Bonnie) and her culinary offspring (her two sons) have tried and recommend. At the site, sign up for the free weekly NewsBite—a snippet of information about one product—and read a bounty of insightful and witty reviews. As a registered user, you can rate and comment on the products, and enter one of the many monthly contests to win a KitchenAid food processor, Cabot cheese, OXO fruit prep tools, coupons for Stouffer's Lean Cuisine, Vermont Butter & Cheese Bijou, Swanson Organic Chicken Broth, Melissa's Red Beets, Eagle Mills flour made with Ultragrain or more.
